President's Message

Dear League Members:

The first statement someone who meets me makes about our League is, "So, you register people to vote?" Yes, we do and more! Our purpose is to promote political responsibility through active and informed participation of citizens.

To that end, we participated in events put on by health facilities, organizations and legislators so we could register members of the public to vote and complete absentee ballots well before their respective deadlines.

Inside, Pat Herring and Mary Anne Stinner share anecdotes about registering citizens to vote at the Allentown YMCA on September 22. A few days earlier, Barbara Williams helped residents at Phoebe Terrace complete absentee ballots.

The League of Women Voters of Northampton County and Lehigh County co-sponsored a Candidates' Forum for the 7th Congressional District race the evening of Thursday, October 25, 2018. The forum was hosted at Gracedale's chapel in Nazareth and was the result of much effort made by Barbara Williams and Beverly Hernandez, her counterpart in Northampton County.

Look for more information about the forum in the December/January issue. Information is posted now on the Election 2018 web page of our website.

Inside, Mary Erdman describes how you can support redistricting reform on Election Day. Four days later, Mary is taking part in a panel discussion examining the results of the November General Election. Congratulations, Mary!

We partnered with The Morning Call to put out a printed Voters Guide and posted the PDF version on Voters Guide on our website. The candidates for legislative offices also appear inside on pages 6-8.

We introduced a new organization to our members: Medicare for All.

Articles inside this issue will describe these and the many other events and services which took place in September and October and will detail the events we are planning for the rest of the year.

November Hot Topics Luncheon

The League of Women Voters of Lehigh County will present Bill White speaking about "Election Results" at its Nov. 12 Hot Topics Luncheon. Bill White has worked for The Morning Call since 1974, when he began as a reporter. He also was a copy editor, edition editor, Sunday editor and bureau chief before becoming a full-time columnist in 1992.

Among other things, he is considered the Lehigh Valley's foremost expert on Christmas lights and Musikfest food. He is a graduate of Lehigh University and Ohio State University and has been teaching journalism as an adjunct at Lehigh for 35 years.

The public is invited! Bring friends, family and colleagues! You can help publicize the event by downloading the flyer posted on our website at www.lwvlehighcounty.org. Click on Upcoming Events and then choose Hot Topics. The luncheon will be held 11:30 a.m. November 12 in the Banquet Room at the Superior Restaurant, 102 State Road., Emmaus. If you need assistance using the stairs, we will help you.

To make a reservation, please contact crizzy49@yahoo.com or call 610-432-1456 by Thursday, November 8. The buffet luncheon cost is $11 payable at the door or attendees may listen to the presentation without lunch.

Membership

November is the month we begin our membership renewal drive. Members will be receiving a renewal letter in the mail. Our dues remain the same at $70 for individual membership and $105 for a household membership. The deadline to send in your completed membership application and dues will be January 31, 2019. Membership booklets will be mailed in February.

When completing the membership renewal application, you will have an opportunity to make a separate donation to the League of Women Voters Education Fund. Since last year when we started to hold the Hot Topics Luncheons in the Banquet Room in the basement of the Superior Restaurant, more members of our organization and the public have attended our luncheons. It is a large, quiet room with a good sound system. Also, the restaurant owners have provided us with a projector for our speakers to use at no additional cost. Your contributions to the Education Fund will help offset the cost for this arrangement. Many of you have given generously to the Education Fund. We hope you will continue your contribution in the form of a separate check from your dues renewal. The contribution to the Education Fund is tax deductible.

League Members Help with Voter Registration

A voter registration event was held on September 15 at Phoebe Terrace in Allentown. The two hour event was well attended by residents who were interested in the absentee ballot process.

Most of the attendees were super voters and very proud of their voting records. As they look forward to the mid-term elections in November, their main concern was getting to their polling place and having to stand while they waited in line.

All who attended filled out an absentee application and were looking forward to receiving their absentee ballot. As they worked on their applications, many were passionate about various issues being debated by the candidates.

A special thank you to Dorothy Sechler who was instrumental in setting up the event at Phoebe Terrace and to Barbara Wolfgang and the staff for helping make the day a very productive one.

October Board Notes

The board of the Lehigh County League of Women Voters met Thursday, October 11, 2018 at the Rittenhouse Village of the Lehigh Valley. Here are highlights of the meeting.

Treasurer Barbara Williams presented financial reports for the month of September. The balance for the month ending September 30, 2018 was $17,704.83. She also reviewed the first quarter report for the 2018-2019 fiscal year.

President Janet Little reported that the final copy for the Voters Guide had been prepared and sent to The Morning Call before the October 12 deadline. The candidates used VOTE411 to answer questions and our League took the responses from VOTE411 for our local guide.

The board will be looking for someone to serve as editor of the Voters Guide. Molly Faust offered to prepare an ad for The Voter.

Janet Little reported on the Government Directory. Letters went out to all offices listed in the directory except those on the ballot this fall requesting updates on information; some have responded already. Kaitlyn Moyer, board member, will update the online directory. Janet Little said solicitation letters for sponsors of the directory were mailed at the end of September. Board members agreed to make follow-up calls.

Barbara Williams reported on the Candidates Forum for the 7th Congressional District held on October 25. Our League co-sponsored it with the Northampton County League.

Membership Chair Margie Dunn asked for some guidance on membership fees. Board members voted to set prorated membership fees as follows: a new member joining in the months of February through July shall pay the full annual membership fee (currently $70); a new member joining in August through November would pay half the annual fee, $35.

There was discussion about those in our membership who use RCN for their email service being unable to receive any email from Janet Little. These include the emails containing a link to the latest issue of The Voter. The message received by Janet Little shows RCN considers those emails to be spam. Janet Little said RCN customer service must be contacted directly by the individuals affected. Board member Audrey Danek offered to call these members to explain what they must do to receive our emails.

The next board meeting will take place 4 p.m. on Thursday, November 8.

Molly Faust, Secretary

Submit news to the newsletter! Members are welcome to write articles, 100 words or less, about League events they have participated in or other pertinent subjects. October Hot Topics Luncheon

The League of Women Voters of Lehigh County presented "FIX IT: Healthcare at the Tipping Point" at the October Hot Topics Luncheon.

Vincent Mondillo showed the shorter version of the film of the same name and answered many questions from the audience in an understandable way.

A large fraction of the money going into the health care system is not being spent on delivering health care to patients. A so-called single payer system will reduce the opportunity to divert funds to nefarious uses.

You can watch both versions by going to the website https://fixithealthcare.com.

The organization Lehigh Valley Medicare for All sponsored the presentation. Phila Back, a prominent volunteer with the organization, distributed questionnaires.

Janet Little, President

Welcoming Week at the Allentown YMCA

Welcoming Week was held at the Allentown YMCA September 22.

We tried to ask everyone that passed by our table if they were registered to vote and I think we got almost everyone.

We had four responses: two change of addresses and two new registrations.

Our most interesting was a new registration for an Arabic woman from Georgia — the country not the state. She taught herself English, but said she had difficulty with writing and reading. She was in a hurry but when she learned that we would take care of the paperwork, she took the time to register. She mentioned several times that America is wonderful.

The other new registration was one of the staff at the YMCA.

Legislative Update

Finally there is progress in Harrisburg on gun control and domestic violence.

Katherine from Turning Point distributed a packet of information on House Bill 2060 (Domestic Violence Homicide Prevention), pending legislation (Senate Bill 449, Senate Bill 500, Senate Bill 501, Senate Bill 502, Senate Bill 6, Senate Bill 919, House Bill 175, House Bill 983 and House Bill 1632) and Senate and House roll calls. Find information about these bills at www.legis.state.pa.us and enter the bill number in the search box.

The Trump Administration is pushing to take away health care, housing and food assistance from low-income immigrant families, including children, by expanding a rule which deems some immigrants a "public charge."

In Pennsylvania, House Bill 1659 (mandating work requirements for SNAP) has been referred to the Senate Rules & Executive Nominations Committee.

Getting Out the Vote

VOTE411.org is live and a good resource for those who need information on voting requirements and where to vote.

Voter registration is now over in Pennsylvania. (October 9 was the last day to register before the election on November 6.)

Announcements

Turning Point is celebrating 40 years of existence on October 17 at the Channel 39 Building.

The League of Women Voters of Lehigh County has scheduled Bill White on November 12 for its monthly luncheon.

The Fourth Friday Film Series at the Unitarian Universalist Church in Bethlehem is featuring "A 21st Century Democracy: What does that look like and how do we get there?" on October 26.

Northampton Community College Keynote Lecturer is Chip Berlet, speaking on "Right-Wing Mobilization in the U.S." 7 p.m. October 26 in the Lipkin Theatre.

Speakers

Rosemary Baker and Randi Blauth spoke about their diversity study group agenda this year. The topic for the year is Mass Incarceration and what to do about it.

The group is learning about women in prison and mass incarceration.

The group read "Becoming Ms. Burton," an eye opening book about how one woman turned herself around and is helping other women as they are released from prison.

Bonnie Winfield runs The Journey Home, a nonprofit which uses art as therapy.

There is a public meeting on ending mass incarceration titled "Smart Justice" on October 23. The meeting will be held at 916 Turner St., Allentown. More information found on http://justice.ppjr.org.

Voters Guide for the 2018 General Election

We had a relatively seamless experience preparing the Voters Guide for the General Election. Molly Faust and Barbara Williams reviewed and edited the information candidates entered into the online questionnaire on the VOTE411 website to meet The Morning Call's specifications. It was rewarding to submit a final draft to The Morning Call including responses submitted by all but two candidates. The following week, I met with Kay Browne, my counterpart from the League in Northampton County, at the newspaper to sign off on the layout. In a few days, we received the PDF version of that final draft; it is available for downloading on the Voters Guide section of the website.

The Morning Call printed the Voters Guide on October 25. Subscribers to The Morning Call daily received the guide with that day's issue. The Morning Call also printed additional issues for our League to distribute to members, supporters and the public. Thank you again to Burke and Pat Swan for opening their home to volunteers. There, Molly Faust, Janet Little and Ann Bartholomew prepared the copies so we could more easily distribute packets to public libraries and organizations. We also mailed single copies to members and supporters.

Voters Guide Committee Openings

The Voters Guide is a widely respected non-partisan publication produced by the League before each election. Although The Morning Call prints the guide, it is the League which gathers the information from candidates and prepares the copy to send to the newspaper for printing. And, by "League" we mean the Voters Guide Committee.

We are looking for a member to serve as editor of the Voters Guide in addition to several members who would like to serve on the committee to help the editor.

The job entails gathering candidate responses to predetermined questions, asking members to edit them according to the newspaper's specifications and organizing the edited content in a set format to send to the newspaper for layout and printing. Contact with the candidates is done primarily via email so an ability to work on the computer is necessary. Previous Voters Guide editors are available to help with learning the job. Please contact Janet Little if you are interested.

Government Directory

One of our goals is to keep the online directory updated on an ongoing basis. We welcome every member to notify Janet Little about changes to information listed for their municipality and school system and any of the listings in the other sections.

This fall, the board pursued a new strategy to update the online Government Directory: partner with key stakeholders, the staff of the offices listed in the directory.

In September, we mailed letters to the office managers of all offices listed in directory (except those offices that are on the ballot on November 6; we will contact elected candidates afterward) inviting them to review their listing on the online directory and email corrections to email@lwvlehighcounty.org. Within two weeks, we received e-responses from the office managers of half of Lehigh County's 25 municipalities! More responses will come in. That said, Janet Little is recruiting volunteers to collect outstanding responses before the end of the year.

Please contact Janet Little if you would like to help. She will give you everything you need, including a script, to make the telephone call to the office manager.

Also, take a look at the Government Directory on the website. The edited entities have an asterisk in front of their names. We are getting there!

Annual Government Directory Donor Solicitation

The board of directors decided to solicit donations annually to offset the cost of printing the Government Directory. In September, we mailed letters to local businesses, organizations and agencies soliciting tax-deductible contributions, made out to LWV Education Fund. They may be finalizing their budgets for 2019 right now so we want to make sure the League of Women Voters Education Fund is included.

One tactic that never goes away is following up. Several board members are telephoning some of the offices that received letters on October 1. But, there are many offices remaining. Please contact Janet Little if you would like to contact one of them. She will give you everything you need, including a script, to easily make the telephone call.

Fair Districts PA begins preparations for new Legislative Session

As we go to press, the staff of Fair Districts - Lehigh & Northampton Counties, is scheduling activities and events to keep redistricting reform fresh in the minds of Pennsylvania citizens.

Even though House Bills 722, 2402 and Senate Bill 22 were not passed in this session, the motivation to finally bring redistricting reform to Harrisburg is still alive and well in this grass roots organization. We are recharged and ready to fight to end gerrymandering in Pennsylvania.

As stated last month, Carol Kuniholm and members of the legislation committee; along with various bi-partisan State Senate and House members are feverishly working on new legislation to be introduced in January of 2019. In the meantime, we will continue to educate groups of citizens, obtain municipal resolutions, write letters to the editor and garner more members through signatures on our FDPA petitions.

The following will have taken place or will occur shortly after you receive your November edition of The Voter.

On October 16, member Mary Erdman gave a presentation about gerrymandering and reform to the College Hill Neighborhood Association in Easton. In addition to a description of gerrymandering and redistricting reform, a comparison of the old District 15 and the new District 7 was discussed and outlined before the election.

On October 26, both Janet Little and Mary Erdman tabled at a panel discussion at the UU Church in Bethlehem which includes FDPA chairperson Carol Kuniholm and representatives from March on Harrisburg, Common Cause and Represent PA. The theme that evening was: "A Democracy for the 21st Century: What will it look like and how do we get there?" This was an impressive group of panelists. Thanks to League member Tom Ulrich for organizing such a fascinating panel and informative evening.

On October 28, League member and FDPA speaker Terry Schettini gave a presentation and talk at the UU Bethlehem Church Sunday "Coffeebreak" at 9 a.m. - yet another opportunity to educate and involve more citizens in the grass roots movement to end gerrymandering in Pennsylvania. Hope you were able to attend.

On October 30, the Lower Macungie Library hosted a presentation on Gerrymandering Reform by Mary Erdman 6 to 7:30 p.m.

As you can see, our net of information spreads from one end of the Lehigh Valley to another. We welcome the opportunity to speak to voters before Election Day and share with them both the FDPA website feature: "Know Before You Vote," as well as The League of Women Voters, "VOTE411.org" feature on the League website: palwv.org.

November 6, Election Day, is also our Voter Outreach Day to work the polls for Fair Districts. You get a clipboard, button and FDPA materials and ask voters, after they vote, about joining our fight to end gerrymandering. We want to end the undemocratic practice of legislators picking their voters instead of voters picking their legislators! If you want to join us, just email FDPA Lehigh and Northampton team leader, Carla Colangelo at carlacfairdistricts@gmail.com. You can volunteer to work one hour or all day. We are open to any time you can give to help promote FDPA. If you have not volunteered on Voter Outreach Day, it is a fun and rewarding experience. We are counting on you! Please think about volunteering sometime during that day.

Hopefully, you will receive The Voter in time to attend the November 10 AAUW (Allentown and Bethlehem Chapters) panel discussion, post election: "What Now:" A Public Forum - examining the results of the November general election. Panelists include Bill White of The Morning Call, Professor Megan Monahan of Cedar Crest College and Mary Erdman, representing The League of Women Voters and FDPA. Doors open at 9:45 a.m. and the program begins at 10 a.m. in the Wesley Church Auditorium, 2540 Center St., Bethlehem. Hope to see you there.
